WHAT IS CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE?

CWD is a progressive, fatal neurological disease that affects deer, elk and moose. There is no known case of CWD affecting people, pets, livestock, or wildlife other than the deer family. However, the World Health Organization and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommend not consuming meat from an animal known to be infected with CWD. The CDC also recommends that hunters have deer, elk, and moose tested if they were harvested in an area where CWD is known to be present, which includes hunting districts with, and adjacent to, those with CWD detections. Visit fwp.mt.gov/cwd for more information.

WHERE IS CWD?

CWD has been detected across much of Montana. Maps of where CWD is found in Montana are updated regularly and can be found here: fwp.mt.gov/conservation/chronic-wasting-disease/in-montana.

WHY IS CWD MANAGEMENT IMPORTANT?

Montana FWP has the great responsibility for managing wildlife. That includes managing wildlife diseases. Our efforts at managing CWD:

- Help prevent long-term population declines in infected herds. Some states have seen more than a 40% decline in mule deer.
- Decrease prevalence and likelihood of spread.
- Help mitigate the disease's broader impacts to Montana's hunting and outdoor legacy.

DISPOSE, DON'T EXPOSE

Don't dump carcasses

There are three very important reasons not to dump a game carcass:

1. IT CAN SPREAD CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE. Once an animal with CWD dies, ANY PART of the carcass can transmit the disease for at least two years.
2. IT'S ILLEGAL. Montana State Law prohibits dumping dead animals or refuse on public property, including all state-owned and managed lands, which includes FWP-managed fishing access sites and wildlife management areas. If you are caught, you risk a fine and losing hunting and fishing privileges for a year.
3. IT'S UNSIGHTLY. A dumped carcass reflects poorly on the hunting community.

Follow carcass disposal guidelines

To prevent the spread of CWD, all parts of the head or skull containing brain material and/or the spinal columns of deer, elk, and moose harvested in Montana must be left in the field at the kill site or, if transported for further processing including taxidermy or meat processing, must be disposed of in a class II landfill once that processing is complete.

Letter from the Director

Last fall the Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission set the Montana hunting regulations for 2026 and 2027. In doing so, it made a variety of changes to address concerns about nonresident hunting pressure and mule deer numbers.

Though most of the regulations stayed the same from last year, the changes adopted by the commission garnered the most interest. And that's expected. Just like FWP staff, the commission has heard clearly that hunters and landowners are concerned with declining mule deer numbers and hunting pressure from nonresident hunters.

So, what has changed? Before I point to a few changes in this year's regulations, it's important to remember what the commission, the Montana Legislature, and FWP have done in the past few years to try and protect declining mule deer herds.

Starting in 2023 FWP began reducing deer B licenses in areas with declining mule deer numbers. That same year the legislature also passed a law that said nonresident hunters could only have one deer B license unless they had a combination license, then they could have two. The following year, FWP continued to reduce deer B licenses in many areas to the lowest number allowed by the commission established quota.

This fall the commission reduced the number of deer licenses a resident can hold from eight to three. The commission also made deer B licenses only valid on private land within most of the state.

To address hunting pressure, the commission passed a cap on the sale of a particular nonresident deer license. Based on recent drawing statistics, this cap would essentially cut the number of these licenses available to nonresidents by about 2,500.

In proposing the change, Commission Chair Lesley Robinson pointed to the increase in hunting pressure she and other landowners are seeing and the need to try something different.

So as a hunter in Montana, what should you take away from all these changes? I would offer a couple of points.

First, FWP and the commission continue to work hard at protecting Montana's mule deer herds. This happens not only through regulations, but also with sound science and public engagement. Before the next biennial season setting process, FWP will finalize a new mule deer management plan that will be greatly informed by public feedback.

Second, your input and involvement are critical. While we saw hundreds of comments through our regulations setting process, we also held some meetings that were poorly attended. We have ample opportunity for the public to be involved. If you're interested in helping to shape future regulations, sign up for emails, call your regional office, make sure you're getting our newsletters so you know what's going on.

Lastly, hunters can have an impact on landowners and the resources. We know the majority of hunters behave ethically and responsibly, but those who don't, even though they are in the extreme minority, are having a big impact on landowners.

If you're out hunting this year and see unethical or illegal behavior, please report it. You can find your local game warden easily by going to tipmont.mt.gov. Also, take the time to refresh yourself on hunting ethics and take the Hunter Landowner Stewardship Program. You can find it online at fwp.mt.gov/itsuptous.

Good luck this year and be safe.

Christy Clark

Highlights

- Resident deer hunters are limited to purchasing three deer licenses per license year. That may be a general license and two B licenses or three B licenses.
- Many mule deer B licenses are now restricted to private land only. Be sure to check the opportunity specific details for each hunt.
- Over-the-counter Deer B and Elk B License purchase date changed to June 15.
- Hunting and fishing licenses are accessible through a secure and convenient mobile app. The Montana MyFWP app provides a digital wallet to store and display licenses and digital carcass tags, known as E-Tags, that can validate your harvest in the field.
- Photocopying or printing more than one license may constitute a violation. It is unlawful to apply for, purchase, or possess more licenses, permits, or tags than are authorized. See page 25.
- Permits for either-sex elk or brow-tined bull-antlerless elk will limit the holder to hunting for antlered elk within only the designated hunting district (HD) for the period identified on the permit. Antlerless elk hunting will not be limited by the permit. A general license may be used to hunt in any open district during dates outside of that identified on the permit.
- Deadline for deer/elk permits and Nonresident Combination License applications is April 1.
- Nonresidents hunting with a Montana-licensed outfitter applying for combination licenses may elect to purchase an additional outfitter preference point at the time of application.
- To prevent the spread of CWD, follow carcass disposal guidelines, see page 4.

Reminders

- Youth and Apprentice Hunter Information, see page 19.
- Game Damage Hunt Roster Rules, see page 31.
- License Discount Opportunities, see page 18.
- Elk hunters can purchase multiple Elk B licenses, see page 16.
- Landowners or their designees apply online or at an FWP office then submit a separate landowner preference form. Preference forms for deer and elk permits must be received by April 1, and forms for Elk B, Deer B, Antelope and Antelope B must be received by June 1.
- An email address is required of all applicants applying for limited licenses or permits.

How To Use These Regulations

Montana's vast 147,164 square miles is divided into seven administrative regions, each with a main regional office. Each region is then broken down into hunting districts. The regions are numbered 1 through 7 with the hunting districts in the region corresponding to that number. Example: Region 1 hunting districts start with 1 or 001, Region 2 starts with 2 or 002 etc.

Obtain A License Or Permit (MCA 87 2 104 & 87 2 704)

- Only one license or permit of any type may be purchased each year, unless otherwise specified. For example, a hunter may purchase more than one elk B license.
- Many licenses or permits may be purchased from FWP license ambassadors, FWP offices or online licensing. Some licenses and permits are available only through a drawing.
- Refer to the Licenses Available Chart, pages 12-13, for a complete list of resident and nonresident licenses and application or purchase deadlines.
- A person applying for a "first and only choice" license/permit is limited to that specific license/permit only for that species and will not be allowed to select a second and third license/permit opportunity when applying. Licenses and/or permits issued through a drawing identified as a "first and only choice" opportunity will not be offered as a surplus license/permit opportunity if the department receives fewer applications than the number of license/permits available.

Online Licensing

- FWP requires hunters to apply for special permits/licenses online, over the counter at an FWP office, or license ambassador. Safeguards with these systems ensure valid applications and your information is immediately entered into the automated system and retained for future license purchases or applications.
- You may apply for permits and/or licenses and purchase many general hunting licenses from FWP Online Licensing between approximately 5 a.m. and 11:45 p.m., Montana local time, seven days a week within applicable sales dates.
- Go to ols.fwp.mt.gov and follow the instructions.
- Online purchases must be made by using a MasterCard, Visa, Discover, American Express, or debit card.
- Montana residents can purchase their first resident licenses online through the online licensing system (OLS) or at any license ambassador providing they have a valid Montana driver license issued at least six months prior.
- All license purchases and applications are final and cannot be changed or withdrawn. (ARM 12.3.601)

Drawing Applications

- All applications for deer and elk permits must be submitted on or before April 1. Applications for deer B, elk B, antelope and/or antelope B licenses must be submitted on or before June 1.
- Both resident and nonresident hunters are eligible to apply for most of the licenses awarded through the drawings.

By state law, nonresidents are limited to, but not guaranteed, 10 percent of the license and/or permit quota.

- Drawings are based upon the final quotas adopted by the F&W Commission, which may differ from the quotas listed in the printed hunting district regulations.
- For specific license/permit opportunities, please refer to the hunting district regulations for a complete list of all available hunting opportunities for each hunting district.

Party Applications

- In Montana, a "party" means a group of 2-5 persons applying together to obtain a license or permit. If successful, each hunter must harvest their own game.
- All party members must select the same opportunity type and bonus or preference point participation.

For online applications: The party establisher must list all party members and provide the party number to all members. Each member must apply online as a member of that party using the number assigned to the establisher.

- Nonresident holders of a Landowner-Sponsored Deer Combination License may apply for a deer permit only in the hunting district where they are authorized to hunt deer.

License and Permit Types

Antelope License (either-sex)

- License holders may lawfully take antelope subject to all specifications on the license. The total number of antelope licenses an individual may hold is three, only one of which may be an either-sex license.
- Both resident and nonresident hunters are eligible to apply for antelope licenses awarded through the drawings.
- By state law (MCA 87-2-506), nonresidents are limited to, but not guaranteed, 10 percent of the license and/or permit quota.
- Drawings are based upon the final quotas adopted by the F&W Commission, which may differ from the quotas listed in the hunting district regulations.
- Archers must hold a valid antelope license and a bow and arrow (archery) license to hunt during the Archery Only Season.

Antelope B License (doe/fawn) -

- The cost of the first nonresident antelope B license whether issued through FWP drawings, over-the-counter, or through surplus is $200. Additional nonresident antelope B license cost is $50.
- The same rules apply to Antelope B Licenses as stated in the Antelope License description above.

Antelope Archery Only/ArchEquip Only License - Drawing Only

- A limited number of licenses are available.
- Licenses are valid for either-sex antelope.
- Hunting is restricted to ArchEquip Only.
- Archers using this license during the antelope General Season must wear hunter orange.
- Applications must be made online at ols.fwp.mt.gov no later than 11:45 p.m. Montana local time June 1, or over the counter at a FWP office or license ambassador by close of business June 1.
- Hunters who apply for the 900-20 multi-region antelope license must list 900-20 as their first and only either-sex choice.
- The 900-20 licenses are valid in any hunting district beginning with the number 4, 5, 6 and/or 7.
- Region 3 has a separate archery-only antelope license opportunity. The 399-20 license is valid in any Region 3 hunting district, except HD 313. Hunters who apply for a 399-20 license must also list it as their first and only choice.

Bow and Arrow License (MCA 87 2 708)

A bow and arrow license, plus the proper hunting license is required during: (1) the deer, elk and/or antelope Archery Only Season; or (2) to archery hunt in an ArchEquip only area or hunting district.

Deer Licenses & Permits

General Deer License

The General Deer License is valid for one deer. Hunters may hold only one General Deer License. It can be used for deer as indicated under the "General Deer License" heading on the deer and elk hunting district pages of these regulations.

- Residents may buy a Sportsman's License, which includes a General Deer License. Some disabled, youth, and senior hunters may qualify for discounted licenses.
- Most nonresidents cannot buy their general deer license over the counter. They must obtain a General Deer License through one of the following drawings:
 - Big Game (deer and elk) Combination license (17,000 issued), or a
 - Deer Combination License (4,600 issued), or a
 - Landowner Sponsored License (2,000 issued).

Nonresidents can apply for only one of these combo licenses each year. All of these license types include season fishing and upland bird licenses. Currently, demand is greater than supply, so to get a deer license, you need to apply in a random lottery drawing by April 1.

Deer B License

- Valid for one deer during a specific time period, or for a certain species and sex, and in a particular hunting district or group of districts. May be offered through a drawing or over-the-counter.
- A deer B license is usually a license for antlerless mule deer or white-tailed deer, depending on the license type and hunting district.
- The deer B license allows you to harvest a deer in addition to the deer you could harvest with your General Deer License.
- There is no particular order in which the general deer and deer B licenses must be purchased or used.
- A resident hunter may possess a total of three deer licenses. This total can include two deer B licenses and one general deer license, or three deer B licenses. Game damage and management deer B licenses do not count toward these totals.

- Nonresident hunters who hold a Nonresident Combination License may possess a total of two deer B licenses. Nonresident hunters who do not hold a Nonresident Combination License may possess a total of one deer B license.
- Most deer B licenses are available through the June 1 drawing but those with UNL quotas are available for purchase over the counter at license ambassadors along with FWP Online Licensing beginning in June.

Deer Permit

- Permits are valid for hunting the specified sex-age class during the time period(s) listed.
- Hunters who receive a deer permit must use it with a current General Deer License. A deer permit does not allow you to take a second deer.
- Hunters who receive a deer permit valid for taking an antlered buck mule deer (with their General Deer License) are restricted to taking an antlered buck mule deer only in the district or portion of district specified on the permit. They may not hunt antlered buck mule deer anywhere else in Montana even if the General Season or Archery Only Season is open to mule deer buck hunting with a general deer license. This applies to all deer permit areas, whether limited or UNL, for antlered buck mule deer.
- Deer permits are available through the April 1 drawing to residents and nonresidents. Be sure to check individual hunting district regulations for specific deer permit details. By state law, nonresidents are limited to, but not guaranteed, 10 percent of the license/permit quota.
- Residents must hold a General Deer License before applying for a deer permit.
- Nonresidents must hold or apply for a Big Game or Deer Combination License before applying for a deer permit.

Elk Licenses & Permits

General Elk License

The General Elk License is valid for one elk. Hunters may hold only one General Elk License. It can be used for elk as indicated under the "General Elk License" heading on the deer and elk hunting district pages of these regulations.

- Residents may buy a Sportsman's License (prices vary), which includes a General Elk License. Some disabled, youth, and senior hunters may qualify for discounted licenses.
- Most nonresidents cannot buy their General Elk License over the counter. They must obtain a General Elk License through the drawing for one of the 17,000 Big Game Combination Licenses, which is also good for fishing and upland bird hunting, and may include deer if specified in the application. Demand is greater than supply, so to get an elk license, you need to apply in a random lottery drawing by April 1.

Elk B License

- The Elk B License is valid for taking an antlerless elk during a specific time period and in a particular hunting district or group of districts.
- The Elk B Licenses are designed to control elk numbers, and many are only valid on private land.
- A limited elk B license is obtained only through the drawing and has an application deadline date of June 1.
- UNL elk B licenses have no limit on the number of licenses sold and are available from license ambassadors and FWP Online Licensing. See individual hunting districts for details.
- The only prerequisites for the elk B license are a Conservation License and Base Hunting License.
- A hunter may possess a total of three elk licenses in a year, only one of which can be a General Elk License. Antlerless elk B licenses purchased through surplus sales or valid during late shoulder seasons can be included among the three elk licenses a hunter may hold in any given year.
- Elk B license hunting opportunities may be restricted to portions of individual hunting districts. See individual hunting districts for specific details.

Elk Permit

- Elk permits are allotted by drawing only. The application deadline is April 1. Residents must hold a General Elk License before applying for an elk permit. Nonresidents must hold or apply for an Elk or Big Game Elk Combination License before applying for an elk permit. Check individual hunting district for specific details. By state law, nonresidents are limited to, but not guaranteed, 10 percent of the license/permit quota.
- Elk permits must be used with a general license. They do not allow a hunter to harvest an additional elk. A permit allows you to hunt in a restricted area or time period where harvest restrictions exist for General Elk License holders.
- Permits for either-sex elk or brow-tined bull-antlerless elk will limit the holder to hunting for antlered elk within only the designated HD for the period identified on the permit. Antlerless elk hunting will not be limited by the permit. A general license may be used to hunt in any open district during dates outside of that identified on the permit.
- Learn about the hunting district you wish to hunt before applying for a permit. For instance, do not apply for a backcountry area if you aren't willing and prepared to backpack in. And do not apply in hunting districts that are mostly private land if you aren't certain you can get permission.

- In all or a portion of many hunting districts, a hunter is required to have successfully drawn a special permit before hunting a bull elk, brow-tined bull elk, or antlerless elk in all or a portion of the hunting seasons. See individual hunting districts for specific regulations.

Nonresident Shed Hunting License

Nonresident Shed Hunting: A $50 nonresident shed hunting license is required on WMAs. Nonresident access to shed hunting on WMAs is restricted for the first 7 days after the May 15 opening.

Bonus Point System (MCA 87 2 117)

Bonus points can increase your chances to draw a license or permit.

- Bonus points essentially offer you additional drawing chances and are used for first-choice drawings only.
- Bonus points are mathematically squared prior to the drawing. That means if you have 3 existing bonus points those points will be squared and added to your original application, giving you a total of 10 chances in the drawing ($3^2 = 9 + \text{original application}$).
- If you wish to participate in the bonus point program (to use or gain points), make sure to select "YES" on the bonus point question under each species application, the $20 (nonresident) or $2 (resident) bonus point fee for each license/permit will be added to the total.
- All accumulated bonus points, including the one purchased at the time of application, will be used in the current year's drawing if that person elects to purchase a bonus point. If a person does not elect to purchase a bonus point, their existing bonus points will not be used or applied to the current years drawing
- The department shall delete a person's accumulated bonus points if:
 - A person chooses to participate in the bonus point system for a drawing AND is successful in drawing their first-choice opportunity, resulting in deletion of bonus points for that specific license type.
 - A person loses hunting and fishing privileges through court action, resulting in deletion of all existing bonus points.
- Bonus points are nontransferable; they cannot be transferred between the species drawings or individuals.
- Bonus points for party applications are the average of their individual base bonus points rounded to the nearest whole number.

- To purchase a bonus point, applicants must be of eligible age to apply for licenses or permits. Any youth who no longer qualifies will not lose accumulated points.
- You may purchase one bonus point per license type per year, either at the time of application or between July 1 and Sept. 30 of the current year if you did not apply for that license type. For example: If you submit an application for an elk permit on April 1, you may also purchase a bonus point at that time. If you do not choose to purchase a bonus point at that time, you may not purchase one from July - September. You may, however, purchase a bonus point for a different license type (e.g. Elk B) between July 1 and Sept. 30.
 - EXCEPTION: Nonresident landowners enrolled in a department-administered private land hunting access program in the previous license year may qualify to purchase an additional bonus point for an elk or deer license or permit.
- The fee to purchase a bonus point without applying is $15 per species for residents, and the nonresident fees are $25 per species with the exception of moose, sheep, and goat, which are $75 per species.
- An applicant for a drawing with an unlimited quota will not be offered an opportunity to participate in the bonus points program for that license type in the same license year.

Preference Points

- 75% of Nonresident Combination Licenses are awarded to applicants in the order of which applicants hold the greatest number of preference points. The other 25% are awarded to applicants who do not hold any preference points via random drawing.
- If you elect to purchase a preference point, select "YES" on the preference point question. The additional $100 fee will be added to your total.
- All accumulated preference points, including any purchased at the time of application, will be used during the current drawing whether you purchase an additional preference point or not.
- The department shall delete a person's accumulated preference points if:
 - A person is successful in drawing a Nonresident Combination License.
 - A person who currently holds one or more preference points does not apply for a Nonresident Combination License in the next available drawing.
- Preference points may not be reinstated if a person is successful in drawing and elects to refund their Nonresident Combination License.
- Preference points for party applications are the average of their individual preference points rounded to the third decimal point.
- Outfitter clients are eligible to purchase a second preference point for an additional $100 at the time of application. Licenses issued using this point are only valid for hunting with an outfitter.

- No one may hold more than three preference points.
- Those who do not apply for a combination license may purchase one preference point for $100 between July 1 and Dec. 31.

Landowner Preference (MCA 87 2 705)

- Montana landowners (resident and non-resident) may qualify for preference in the license/permit drawings for deer, elk, and antelope.
- Up to fifteen percent of final quotas are set aside for Deer Permit, Elk Permit, Deer B, Elk B, Antelope, Antelope B, and Nonresident Big Game and Elk Combination drawings. Nonresident landowner quotas may not exceed 10 percent of final quotas for any drawing which Montana residents are also eligible to apply for.
- In order to claim landowner preference for deer B, deer permit, and/or antelope drawings, a landowner must own at least 160 acres of land within the hunting district applied for. If the license/permit is only valid for a portion of the hunting district, the landowner must own land within that portion and the land must be used primarily for agricultural purposes.
- In order to claim landowner preference for the elk B license and/or elk permit drawings, a landowner must own at least 640 contiguous acres of land used by elk as documented by FWP.
- A landowner owning 160 acres or more of contiguous production agricultural land on which the department has documented elk game damage within the last 2 years may also claim landowner preference for an Elk B license.
- If the license/permit is only valid for a portion of the hunting district, a landowner must own land within that portion to claim preference.
- A landowner may designate his/her preference to a member of his/her immediate family (blood or marriage related), a paid employee who has state or federal taxes withheld from pay or to a person with a developmental or physical disability. Only one person may use designated preference in a partnership or corporation.
- Landowners or their designees should apply normally online or at an FWP office by the appropriate deadline and then mail in a separate landowner preference form. Preference forms for deer and elk permits as well as Nonresident Big Game and Elk Combination Licenses must be received by April 1. Forms for elk B, deer B, antelope and antelope B must be received by June 1.
- Up to fifteen percent of quota for Non-resident Big Game and Elk Combination Licenses is set aside for nonresident landowners to hunt only on property the landowner owns or leases for crop production. To qualify, the landowner must own 2,500 contiguous acres in fee title. For each additional 2,500 contiguous acres owned by the landowner, the landowner or their immediate family member(s) may also use preference for a Nonresident Big Game or Elk Combination License, up to a maximum of five per qualifying landowner.

- Use an aircraft:
 - to spot or locate any game animal for the purpose of hunting within 24 hours after utilizing an aircraft;
 - to concentrate, pursue, drive, rally, or stir up a game bird, migratory bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal; or

Archery Equipment (MCA 87-6-401, CR)

- It is unlawful to use any chemical or explosive device attached to an arrow to aid in the taking of game animals.
- The following criteria define Archery Equipment. It is unlawful to use, while hunting game during any Archery Only Season and in Archery Equipment Only areas, archery equipment that does not meet the following criteria:

Hunting Bow: A hunting bow for game animals shall be a longbow, flatbow, recurve bow, compound bow, or any combination of these designs.

- The bow must be a device for launching an arrow, which derives its propulsive energy solely from the bending and recovery of two limbs (includes bows with split limbs).
- The bow must be hand-drawn by a single and direct uninterrupted pulling action of the shooter. The bowstring must be moved from brace height to the full draw position by the muscle power of the shooter's body. The energy used to propel the arrow shall not be derived from any other source such as hydraulic, pneumatic, mechanical, or similar devices. These limitations shall not exclude the mechanical leverage advantage provided by eccentric wheels or cams, so long as the available energy stored in the bent limbs of the bow is the sole result of a single, continuous, and direct pulling effort by the shooter.
- The bow must be hand-held. One hand shall hold the bow, and the other hand draw the bowstring. The bowstring must be moved and/or held at all points in the draw cycle entirely by muscle power of the shooter until release. The bowstring must be released as a direct and conscious action of the shooter, either relaxing the tension of the fingers or triggering the release action of a hand-held release aid.

Exception: Physically disabled bowhunters certified by FWP with the Permit To Modify Archery Equipment (PTMAE) are exempted from the requirement of holding or shooting the bow with their hands.

> A bow is considered lawful if it is at least 28 inches in total length.

Arrow: An arrow is a projectile at least 20 inches in overall length. The length of the arrow is measured from the rearward point of the nock to the tip of the broadhead.

- A broadhead is mounted on the fore end.
- The arrow shall weigh no less than 300 grains with the broadhead attached.
- Arrows must have broadheads with at least two cutting edges and be at least 7/8 inches at the widest point. Expandable broadheads are lawful as long as when expanded they are at least 7/8 inches at the widest point, and weigh no less than 70 grains.

The following are not considered a hunting bow or lawful archery equipment during the Archery Only Season or in an Archery Equipment Only area or hunting district:

- Crossbow.
- Any device with a gun-type stock or incorporating any device or mechanism that holds the bowstring at partial or full draw without the shooter's muscle power.
- Any bow for which a portion of the bow's riser (handle) or any track, trough, channel, or other device that attaches directly to the bow's riser contacts, supports, and/or guides the arrow from a point rearward of the bow's brace height. This is not intended to restrict the use of standard overdraw systems.
- Electronic or battery-powered devices attached to a hunting bow or arrow that aides in the taking or locating of any game animal or game bird. Exception: Camera devices attached to bows for the sole purpose of filming is allowed.
- A bow sight or arrow that uses artificial light, luminous chemicals such as tritium, or electronics. Exception: an arrow may have a lighted nock.

Artificial Light (MCA 87-6-401)

It is unlawful for anyone to take or attempt to take any game animal or game bird with the aid of projected artificial light. Use of rifle scopes that project an artificial light to illuminate the target or project infra-red light visible only with specialized optics to illuminate the target are unlawful for the taking of game animals.

Baiting

(MCA 87-6-401, CR, ARM 12.6.1017)

- It is unlawful for anyone to hunt or attempt to hunt any game animal or game bird by the aid of or with the use of any bait, salt lick, trap, snare, or set gun.
- Baiting shall mean the placing, exposing, depositing, distributing, or scattering of food sources or salt so as to constitute a lure or attraction.
- Artificial scents may be used to attract game animals (except black bears) and game birds.

Carcass Disposal (CR)

To prevent the spread of chronic wasting disease, all parts of the head or skull containing brain material and/or the spinal columns of deer, elk, and moose harvested in Montana must be left in the field at the kill site or, if transported for further processing including taxidermy or meat processing, must be disposed of in a class II landfill once that processing is complete.

Check Stations (MCA 87-6-218)

All hunters are required by law to stop as directed at all designated check stations on their way to and from hunting areas, even if they have no game to be checked.

Disturbing Traps or Trapped Animals (MCA 87-6-601(5))

A person may not destroy, disturb, or remove any trap or snare belonging to another person or remove wildlife from a trap or snare belonging to another person without permission of the owner of the trap or snare, except that from March 1 to Oct. 1 of each year a person may remove any snare from land owned or leased by the person if the snare would endanger livestock. This requirement does not apply to a law enforcement officer acting within the scope of the officer's duty.

Dogs (MCA 87-6-404)

It is unlawful for a person to use dogs to chase game animals. Exception: Dogs may be used to hunt mountain lions and spring black bears, see appropriate regulations for rules. Dogs may be utilized to recover or locate wounded game animals, but handlers shall maintain physical control of the dog at all times by means of a maximum 50-foot lead attached to the dog's collar or harness.

Evidence of Sex (MCA 87-6-406)

A person who kills a game animal in this state shall retain evidence of sex of the animal with the carcass until it is processed. The provisions of this section do not apply to a game animal harvested using a license with which either sex of the animal may be taken. Evidence of sex does not need to be naturally attached. A person who kills a game animal in a hunting district where the harvest is limited by the animal's antler point or horn size shall retain the antlers or horns until the carcass is processed.

Firearms

- Firearms, including rifles, handguns, shotguns with 0, 00, or slugs, and muzzleloaders; archery equipment; and crossbows are lawful for taking game animals. All other methods of take are prohibited.
- There is no rifle or handgun caliber limitation or magazine/round capacity restrictions for the taking of game animals.
- Rifle scopes with illuminated reticles, built-in range finding capabilities, and "red dot" scopes are lawful for the taking of game animals.
- See specific muzzleloader requirements on Page 27 for Weapons Restriction Areas, and on page 25 for the heritage muzzleloader season.

Hunter Harassment (MCA 87-6-215)

It is unlawful to:

- Intentionally interfere with the lawful taking of a wild animal,
- Disturb an individual engaged in the lawful taking of a wild animal with intent to prevent the taking of the animal.

Hunter Orange Requirement (MCA 87-6-414)

Firearm Hunters

Any person hunting or accompanying a hunter as an outfitter or guide must wear a minimum of 400 square inches of hunter orange (fluorescent) material above the waist, visible at all times (see the following exception).

Archery Hunters

A licensed bowhunter pursuing deer, elk, and/or antelope during the Archery Only Season or in an archery only hunting district is not required to meet the hunter orange requirement, even if there is a concurrent firearm season in that hunting district or portion of district. However, bowhunters hunting during any portion of the general (firearm) season for deer, elk, antelope, moose, bighorn sheep, mountain goat, bison, black bear, and/or mountain lion must always wear a minimum of 400 square inches of hunter orange (fluorescent) above the waist, visible at all times.

Hunting Hours (CR)

Authorized hunting hours for the taking of game animals begin one-half hour before sunrise and end one-half hour after sunset each day of the hunting season. See the official Sunrise-Sunset Tables listed on page 151.

Incidental Harvest Resulting in an Unlawfully Taken Animal

If you or a member of your hunting party shoots an animal that results in an unlawfully taken animal, you should notify an FWP game warden or 1-800-TIP-MONT (1-800-847-6668) immediately and follow their instructions.

> Hunters should field dress the animal but DO NOT transport the animal until you've received instructions.

Indian Reservations

- The F&W Commission has by rule, closed all lands within the exterior boundaries of Montana's Indian Reservations to the hunting of game animals with the use of state licenses unless provided for in a cooperative agreement between the Tribal Government and the State of Montana.
- Currently, there are no cooperative agreements between FWP and any of the Tribal Governments in Montana and as such the season for the hunting of game animals, by nonmembers, with a state license is closed. Please contact FWP for further information.

Inspection by Warden (MCA 87-1-502, 87-6-218)

Game animals, game and nongame birds, fish, and furbearers taken must be shown to FWP Enforcement personnel for inspection when requested.

Interstate Wildlife Violator Compact (IWVC)

Montana is a member of the IWVC. Under the compact, member states recognize suspensions of hunting, fishing or trapping privileges. It is unlawful for a violator whose privilege to hunt, fish or trap is suspended to obtain or attempt to obtain a license, tag or permit in a member state. For more information, call 406-444-2452.

Landowner Permission (MCA 87-6-415)

A person may not hunt or attempt to hunt furbearers, game animals, migratory game birds, nongame wildlife, predatory animals, upland game birds, or wolves while hunting on private property without first obtaining permission of the landowner, the lessee, or their agents. Regardless of whether the land is posted or not, hunters must have permission from the land owner, lessee, or their agent before hunting on private property.

For the purposes of this section, the term "hunt" has the same meaning as provided in 87-6-101 and includes entering private land to: (a) retrieve wildlife; or (b) access public land to hunt.

- The person, including a minor child, to whom a license is issued shall validate the license.
- A person commits the offense of unlawful possession of a hunting license or permit if the person knowingly carries or has physical control over a valid and unused hunting license or permit issued to another person while in any location that the species to be hunted may inhabit.

- This does not apply: to a person who is carrying or has physical control over a valid and unused license or permit issued to that person's spouse or to any minor when the spouse or minor is hunting with that person. This exception also applies to a license or permit issued electronically.

License Validation/Tagging (MCA 87-6-411)

- use a motor-driven vehicle other than on a road or trail designated for travel by a landowner unless permission has been given by that landowner.

Off Road- Federal lands (CR)

- A person may not operate, on federal public lands, a motorized wheeled vehicle off legal routes (including game retrieval). The muzzleloading rifle must be a minimum of .45 caliber and may not have more than two barrels. Additionally, 87-6-401(1), a hunter may not use a muzzleloading rifle that requires insertion of a cap or primer into the open breech of the barrel, is capable of being loaded from the breech, or is mounted with an optical magnification device. Use of prepared paper or metallic cartridges, sabots, gas checks, or other similar power and range-enhancing manufactured loads that enclose the projectile from the rifling or bore of the firearm is also prohibited.

Off-Highway Vehicles (including ATV, UTV and dirt bikes)

on public lands (trails, frozen lakes, reservoirs). To be used on roads (county, Forest Service, etc.), an OHV must be registered with the county treasurer and display a license plate and street-legal modifications. Resident hunters utilizing “summer motorized recreation trails” must also purchase a summer motorized recreation trail pass (decal) at a cost of $20, valid for two years and expires on Dec. 31 of the second calendar year. All decals must be affixed in a conspicuous place on the OHV.

A person may not possess, ship, or transport all or part of any game fish, bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal that was unlawfully killed, captured, or taken, whether killed, captured, or taken in Montana or outside of Montana. “Possess” includes the act of killing, capturing, or taking a game fish, bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal regardless of whether the person takes or retains physical possession of the fish, bird, or animal.

This section does not prohibit the possession, shipping, or transportation of:

- hides, heads, or mounts of lawfully killed, captured, or taken game fish, birds, game animals, or fur-bearing animals, except that the sale or purchase of a hide, head, or mount of a grizzly bear is prohibited, except as provided by federal law;

A person may recover and possess the horn or horns and attached skull, or portion thereof, of a mountain sheep that died of natural causes and was not purposefully or accidentally killed, captured, or taken, including due to being struck by a vehicle.

Horns and skulls recovered pursuant to this section must be reported to the department within 48 hours and presented to the department for inspection and placement of a permanent pin in a horn within 10 days. The fee for the pin is $25.

This section does not allow the recovery or possession of horns and skulls found in state parks.

Predatory Animals and Nongame Hunting

Predatory animals and nongame species can be hunted in Montana year-round without a license by both resident and nonresident hunters. A Conservation License, or a State School Trust lands recreational use license is required to hunt predatory animals and nongame species on State School Trust lands. Permission must be obtained to hunt predatory animals and nongame species on private land.

- Predatory Animals are classified as coyote, weasel, (striped) skunk, and civet cat (spotted skunk).
- Nongame species are defined as any wild animal not otherwise lawfully classified by statute or regulation in Montana. Examples include badger, raccoon, red fox, hares, rabbits, ground squirrels, marmots, tree squirrels, porcupines, and prairie dog.

It is unlawful to use any recorded or electrically amplified bird or animal calls or sounds or imitations of bird or animal calls or sounds to assist in the hunting, taking, killing, or capturing of any wildlife except predatory animals, wolves, and those birds not protected by state or federal law.

Restitution for Unlawfully Taken Wildlife (MCA 87-6-906, CR)

Under Montana law, a person convicted, or who was charged and forfeited bond or bail, of unlawfully killing, taking, or possessing game animals shall reimburse the state. The law sets the amount of restitution for a trophy animal under Montana law as:

Bighorn Sheep	$30,000
Elk	$8,000
Antlered Deer	$8,000
Moose	$6,000
Mountain Goat	$6,000
Antelope	$2,000
Grizzly Bear*	$8,000
*no authorized hunting season

- The law specifically outlines minimum standards for a trophy under this regulation, but authorizes the F&W Commission to adopt more specific criteria.
- For the purpose of assessing restitution for unlawfully taken trophy wildlife under Montana law, the following are considered “trophy” animals:

– Antelope: With at least one horn greater than 14 inches in length, as measured along the outside curve from base to tip.

– Elk: Must meet all three criteria:

- 1) at least six points on one antler, 2) a main beam length on each antler of at least 43 inches, and 3) an inside spread of at least 36 inches.

OR

Any elk with at least one six-point antler and having a gross/green Boone & Crockett score of 320 points or greater.

– Mule Deer: Must meet all three criteria:

- 1) at least four points on one antler (excluding brow tine), 2) a main beam length on each side of at least 21 inches, and 3) a greatest inside spread across the main beams of at least 20 inches.

OR

Any mule deer with at least one four-point antler and having a gross/green Boone & Crockett score of 160 points or greater.

– White-tailed Deer: Must meet all three criteria:

- 1) at least four points on one antler (excluding brow tine), 2) a main beam length on each side of at least 20 inches, and 3) a greatest inside spread across the main beams of at least 16 inches.

OR

Any white-tailed deer with at least one four-point antler and having a gross/green Boone & Crockett score of 140 points or greater.

- A “point” as defined in these regulations is at least four inches long for elk and at least one inch long for deer, measured from base to tip. Boone & Crockett (B&C) measuring procedures or standards are used for criteria measurement. The official measurements for the purpose of this regulation are those that are taken at the time of confiscation or seizure of the trophy. Any B&C measurements will be considered final when taken by an official B&C scorer, regardless of drying time. If the skullcap of antlers or horns is broken in such a manner to render an official B&C score invalid, three official B&C scorers will estimate a score. The three scores will be averaged and the average score used to determine trophy status in accordance with Montana law.

Sale of Game Animals (MCA 87-6-206)

A person may not purposely or knowingly sell, purchase, or exchange all or part of any game fish, bird, game animals, or fur-bearing animals, except that a person may sell, purchase, or exchange:

- It is unlawful to ship, possess, transport, or take out of state unlawfully killed game animals.

- When transporting any species for which an electronic tag is issued, the individual transporting the harvested animal’s carcass must retain the confirmation number. The confirmation number must be presented to a department employee upon request.
- It is a violation of the Federal Lacey Act to transport an unlawfully taken game animal across state boundaries.
- If you are transporting lawfully taken wildlife (including parts and/or products of live or dead animals) between the United States and any foreign country, you must complete a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service declaration form. GENERAL INFORMATION Hunter Land Access

Hunters, it is your responsibility to know where you are, to know who owns the land, and to know what access restrictions apply.

Block Management

The Block Management Program is a public hunting access program in which FWP enters into contractual agreements with private landowners (and sometimes public land management agencies) about how free public hunting access will be permitted and managed on enrolled lands. Through the contractual agreement, a private landowner agrees to allow public hunting on enrolled lands under specified conditions, and FWP agrees to assist the landowner by enforcing the ranch rules adopted through the Block Management contract. FWP annually publishes a Hunting Access Guide by Aug. 15 that lists the Block Management Areas (BMAs) enrolled for that year and explains how to gain access to them. For general information about the program, contact FWP at 406-444-3750.

Fishing Access Sites

Many of Montana's fishing access sites (FAS) offer hunting opportunities, however certain restrictions may apply such as no-hunting safety zones and/or restrictions on the type of hunting weapon or firearm that may be used.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Refer to the fishing access site website at myfwp.mt.gov/fishMT/explore for site-specific information, opportunities, and restrictions.

Indian Reservation Trust Lands

Some reservations may offer game animal hunting opportunities with the use of tribal licenses to non-members. Please contact the appropriate tribal government. See "Contacts Outside FWP" on page 144 for contact information.

Montana State Parks

Some of Montana's State Parks provide hunting opportunities; however certain restrictions may apply such as no-hunting safety zones and/or restrictions on the type of hunting weapon or firearm that may be used. Contact the specific park and/or refer to the Montana State Park website at stateparks.mt.gov for site specific information regarding hunting opportunities and restrictions.

Private Land Access

Montana law requires permission for all hunting on private land. See above for information on FWP's Block Management Program.

Public Land Access

- Public lands closed to hunting include:
 - National parks and other areas administered by the National Park Service.
 - National wildlife refuge lands except those areas designated open to public hunting. More restrictive regulations may apply to national wildlife refuges open to public hunting. Please inquire at the local refuge office.
- For hunting opportunities on federal lands such as U.S. Forest Service or U.S. Bureau of Land Management, inquire at the local federal office.
- It is unlawful to post, place signs, or mark state or federal land other than that done by a state or federal land agency.

Railroad Access

Railroads and railroad right-of-ways are private property and may not be hunted without permission, nor should they be used as access to other lands (private or public) without explicit permission from the railroad.

State Game Preserves

State game preserves may or may not be open to hunting. See Restricted Area Descriptions, pages 28-30.

State School Trust Lands

Additional information, including closures and restrictions, is available from the DNRC at 406-444-2074

- A Conservation License provides hunters, anglers and trappers access to lawfully accessible State School Trust lands for related activities during applicable seasons. Additional permitting is required through the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) for trapping on trust lands.

- Overnight use must not exceed the following limits: two consecutive days on leased land, 16 consecutive days within designated campgrounds or on unleased land.
- Motorized travel is only allowed on public roads or on roads designated as open. This restriction applies to all activity including game retrieval.
- Firearms may not be discharged upon trust lands within one-quarter mile of inhabited dwellings or outbuildings without permission of the inhabitant.
- Open fires are prohibited outside of fire pits within designated campgrounds.

Other State Lands

Obtain permission from the appropriate land management agency.

State Wildlife Management Areas (WMA)

- FWP's wildlife management areas are generally open to hunting during the game animals hunting season. WMAs with game animal winter range are closed to public entry, unless otherwise posted, from the day following the end of the general deer-elk season or Dec. 1, whichever is later, to noon on May 15 each year, as posted.
- Exception: There are several exceptions to these guidelines. For WMA specific information, please call the Regional office on page 144 for contact numbers or visit the FWP website at: fwp.mt.gov/conservation/wildlife-management-areas
- Nonresident Shed Hunting: A $50 nonresident shed hunting license is required. On WMAs, nonresident access is restricted for the first seven (7) days after the May 15 opening.

Stream Access Law

The Stream Access Law does not allow for the hunting of game animals between the ordinary high water marks of streams and rivers without landowner permission.

Other Information

Donate Hunting License to Disabled Military Service Member or Veteran (MCA 87-2-815)

Residents and nonresidents can donate their Montana hunting license to a disabled military veteran or disabled active duty service member who is working with an organization that uses hunting as part of the rehabilitation process. The disabled person who receives the license will be a Purple Heart recipient and have a 70 percent or greater disability rating. Visit the website for more information:

Feral Swine

Feral Swine cause extensive damage to domestic and native habitats, wildlife, and livestock throughout much of the United States. To prevent the introduction of feral swine into Montana, the 2015 Legislature has prohibited the transportation, possession, hunting, trapping, or killing of feral swine. If you see or know of any feral swine in Montana, please contact the Montana Department of Livestock at 406-444-2976.

Furbearers

Furbearers are protected game species that may only be taken by residents with a valid Trapping License during prescribed open seasons. State classified furbearers include beaver, otter, muskrat, mink, marten, fisher, wolverine, bobcat, lynx, and swift fox.

Game Damage Hunt Roster Rules

- The game damage hunt roster is a randomized list of hunters' names. If FWP identifies a need to implement a game damage hunt, the game damage hunt roster will be used to select hunters. Selected hunters will be contacted by FWP.
- Sign-up for the game damage hunt roster is from June 15–July 15, 2026, and only on the FWP website through MyFWP.

Harvest Survey

Montana FWP conducts an annual telephone survey to gather hunting and harvest information from Montana hunters. Telephone interviewers call mid-week evenings and weekends to speak to hunters one-on-one to get the most accurate information possible. Wildlife managers use the results to evaluate hunting seasons and set quotas, season dates, and other regulations.

Hunters Against Hunger

When you purchase a Montana hunting license, you'll have an opportunity to make a donation of $1 or more to Hunters Against Hunger. Contributions help pay for butchering and distribution of processed game donated to food banks.

Weed Control and Weed Seed Free Hay

Montana requires use of certified weed seed free hay, grain, straw, mulch, cubes, and pelleted feed on state and federal lands. For further information, contact the Department of Agriculture at 406-444-3144.

12-hour Closure

- In Administrative Region 4, elk HD 424 and HD 442 may be subject to a 12-hour closure for the antlerless portion of the general brow-tined bull or antlerless elk season.
- If the elk quota is reached, the general season will revert to only the brow-tined bull regulation until the end of the general season.
- Contact Region 4 Headquarters or the Augusta Check Station for updates (406-562-3467).

- Shaded districts indicate new or changed boundaries
- Closed to hunting
- Closed to hunting for game animals

Drawing Statistics & Bonus Points

Drawing Statistics

Following a drawing, FWP publishes the resulting drawing statistics online. Most drawings conducted will have a corresponding drawing statistics report. These reports show the number of applicants in each category (resident landowner, nonresident landowner, resident, nonresident), the final quotas, number of applicants in each category, and the number of successful applicants for each opportunity.

For a more detailed report, including how bonus points affected the success rates, FWP also publishes a detailed bonus point drawing statistics report. These reports demonstrate the proportion of successful applicants broken down by opportunity, residency, and the respective amount of bonus points used in the drawing. Remember, the bonus point system is designed to be completely random. This means the drawing statistics will vary with each drawing. For instance, for one drawing the highest success rates might be with hunters who had four bonus points. While for another drawing the highest success rates might be for hunters who had eight bonus points.

It's important to note that the quotas printed in these regulations may vary from the final quotas drawn based on biological surveys. For more information on FWP's drawing statistics reports, please scan the QR code or visit the link below.

Bonus Points

In Montana, every hunter who applies for a license or permit gets one chance in the drawing. Bonus points let you add to those chances. Think of bonus points as extra "raffle tickets". If you apply for a license or permit without any bonus points, you get one "raffle ticket." The number of "raffle tickets" you have in the drawing goes up with the number of bonus points you have.

A unique feature about Montana's system is that FWP squares bonus points prior to drawing. So, the more bonus points you have, the number of "raffle tickets" you have in the drawing goes up exponentially. For instance, if you have 10 bonus points, you get 101 "raffle tickets" for the drawing – 100 for your squared bonus points and 1 for your current application: $(10 \times 10) + 1$.

HOW BONUS POINTS WORK

Formula: $1 \text{ Application} + (\# \text{ Bonus Points})^2 = \# \text{ Drawing Chances}$

Nonresident Hunter Information

Montana has some amazing hunting opportunities for nonresident hunters. However, it's important to know a few key pieces of information before you apply.

Like many states, Montana law governs nonresident hunters differently than resident hunters.

- All nonresidents are limited to, but not guaranteed, 10% of the overall drawing quota for an opportunity. That means if you apply for a deer permit in a hunting district with 100 permits, nonresidents can only draw 10 of those permits.
- Nonresident moose, sheep, and goat hunting districts with a quota less than 10 are added together to a regional hunting district quota. For nonresidents, these opportunities are calculated based off the entire quota for that region. The hunting districts where nonresidents can apply rotate each year in situations like this.
- The 10% cap includes both nonresident landowners and regular nonresidents; however, landowner preference is the first stage of the drawing. Landowner preference could account for up to 15% of the total quotas including residents and nonresidents.
- There is an exception to the 10% rule for nonresidents. If all residents who applied are successful in drawing, nonresidents may be allocated more than 10% of the drawing quotas.

In Montana, nonresidents must be successful in the nonresident combo drawing to move on to the drawing for specific permits. The nonresident combo are the nonresident licenses you must hold to draw specific deer or elk permits.

Nonresident combos are drawn based on preference points. Preference points are applied differently than bonus points. For the nonresident combo drawings, the applicants with the most preference points are drawn first. However, Montana law does state that 25% of nonresident combo licenses will go to people with zero preference points.

Nonresident Preference points & drawings:

What does it mean if my drawing status for my nonresident Combo says "RELEASED"?

"Released" status indicates you were initially unsuccessful in the primary phase of the drawing, but ultimately successful at a later phase from a pool of licenses returned by hunters electing to return their license because they didn't draw their permit.

My drawing results say "UNSUCCESSFUL" but I lost all my preference points?

"Unsuccessful" in combination with a balance of zero preference points indicates you successfully drew a nonresident combo license in the primary drawing, but you elected to return that license if you didn't draw a permit. Because you successfully drew a license in the primary drawing using your preference points, your preference points are reset to zero.

The range of preference points it took to guarantee a successful draw.

The threshold where some applicants draw, and some don't. Drawings are randomized among those at this preference point threshold.

The range of preference points in which no applicants successfully drew a license. In this case, the entire quota for the preference point pool was already drawn by those with 2 points or more. Preference points are retained by those who are not successful in the drawing.

Applicants who enter the drawing with zero preference points are drawn completely at random, separately from those with preference points.

MCA 87-2-115: establishes that 75% of nonresident combination licenses shall be awarded in order of which applicants have purchased the greatest number of preference points, and the other 25% are awarded to applicants who have not purchased any preference points.

GRIZZLY BEAR

MONTANA FWP

Be Bear Aware!

Black bear hunters must be able to tell the difference between a grizzly and a black bear because grizzly bears cannot be legally hunted in Montana.

- Learn how to identify bears.
- Be absolutely sure of your target.

If in doubt,
don't shoot.

Carry Bear Spray and Know How To Use It!

- Hunting puts you at risk of encountering a bear. Calling game and using scents may attract bears.
- If you hunt alone, let someone know about your plans. If you feel uneasy hunting alone, hunt with a partner.
- Bears are opportunists and change their behavior to take advantage of new food sources. Always assume that grizzlies are in the area and make sure your camps, cabins, and homes are bear proof, and that bear attractants are unavailable or contained.
- Mentally rehearse a worst-case scenario with encountering a bear. "If the mind has never been there before, the body does not know how to respond."
- To minimize the likelihood of attack or chances of human injury, make certain you have bear spray at the ready and know how to use it. In sudden grizzly encounters, bear spray has proven effective. Bears sprayed in the face at close range often stop attacking. Always maintain a safe distance from bears.
- Report encounters with grizzly bears to FWP at 1-800-TIP-MONT, U.S. Forest Service, or one of the nearest FWP bear management specialists listed below:

- Justine Vallieres, Kalispell, MT 406-250-1265

HOW TO HUNT SAFELY IN Bear Country

Tips on how to prepare for safe outings.

- Inquire about recent bear activity in the area.
- Carry and know how to use bear spray.
- Let someone know your plans and time frame.
- Travel in groups of three or more people when possible.
- Stay on trails or rural roads.
- Watch for signs of bears such as bear scat, diggings, torn-up logs and turned over rocks, and partly consumed animal carcasses.
- Make your presence known by making noise - talking, singing, carrying a bell - especially when near streams or in thick forest where visibility is low. This can be the key to avoiding encounters. Most bears will avoid humans when they know humans are present.
- Don't approach a bear; respect its space and move off.

Hunters

Bears have expanded to areas where they previously may not have not been. They can now be found throughout Western and Central Montana.

Be aware that the act of hunting puts you at risk of encountering bears and that elk bugling, game calls and cover scents may attract bears.

When hunting, the golden rule is "get the elk or deer out of the area as quickly as possible." The longer a carcass remains lying on the ground, hung up in hunting camp, or in the back of a truck, the more likely it will be discovered by a bear. The sooner elk and deer are taken home the better.

If you must leave the carcass, hang it, in pieces if necessary, at least 10' above the ground. Leave the carcass where you can see it from a distance, and when you return, observe the carcass with binoculars before approaching. If a bear has claimed the carcass, leave the area and report the incident to the proper authorities. It's not worth risking your safety or the bear's safety.

Bears are opportunists and change their behavior in order to take advantage of new food sources. So if you are hunting always assume that bears are in the area and make sure your camps, cabins and homes are bear proof, and that bear attractants are unavailable or contained.

KNOW THE FACTS ABOUT LEAD

- ▶ Lead particles from lead ammunition can be toxic if ingested and can poison wildlife scavenging from gut piles.
- ▶ Hunters can voluntarily choose to use non-lead, copper or other high-weight retention ammunition.
- ▶ To find out more about non-lead ammunition, visit NonleadPartnership.org or HuntingWithNonLead.org.

*FWP cannot regulate ammunition according to Montana statute. The law does not prohibit the use of lead ammunition.
